ABOVE: THE LIGHT IN LIFE™ LOGO REPRESENTS ONE'S 'UMBRELLA FOR LIFE', ALSO KNOWN AS 'ARMOR OF GOD' OR THE 'LIGHT WITHIN'.

Introduction

Truth is simple; complexity is not.*

“Light in Life” is simply, the light known as God, within you.

The light which creates life, from whereabouts unknown and mysterious to curious intellectuals.

Also known as Atman: “The spiritual life principle of the universe, especially when regarded as inherent in the real self of the individual” (defined by the New Oxford American Dictionary).

Or, “a person’s soul” (ibid).

Light in Life™ is a doorway into a person’s soul, alight in God’s eternal perfection.

A means to communicate with that soul, discover its purpose, intentions living this life, or heal its personal issues and body’s physical conditions if struggling to survive its emergence into form.

It isn’t complicated.

On the contrary, the telegraph-like mechanism is so simple, it's primitive by modern standards.

But like in a movie, life without drama and action, is well "boring." So garners little attention.

For life "in the fast lane" going from excitement to experience, on the edge of fear, is exciting beyond time!

Whereas truth, inherently, spoils this motion of desires and attraction with the stillness of its knowing presence:

"There is nothing more damaging to a career than telling an unfortunate truth."

—Rod Liddle

"If you are advertising any product, never see the factory in which it was made. Don't watch the people at work...

Because, you see, when you know the truth about anything, the real inner truth—it is very hard to write the surface stuff which sells it." —Helen Woodward

"No one person can ever change the truth, but the truth, once learned, can and will change the person"

—user Malc on jandean81.com

"Truth cannot be forced, it must dawn on oneself." —KVK Nehru

"When you seek a path to any new truth, you must expect to find it blocked by 'expert opinion.'" —Albert Guérard

"The truth is that the State is a conspiracy designed not only to exploit, but above all to corrupt its citizens."

—Leo Tolstoy

"If people knew the truth, the war would be stopped tomorrow. But of course they don't know and can't know."

—David Lloyd George, British prime minister, 1917

"We're all born knowing the truth, but by the time you're four or five years old, they've beaten it out of you."

—Bob Dylan (attributed)

"One of the saddest lessons of history is this: If we've been bamboozled long enough, we tend to reject any evidence of the bamboozle. We're no longer interested in finding out the truth. The bamboozle has captured us. It's simply too painful to acknowledge, even to ourselves, that we've been taken. Once you give a charlatan power over you, you almost never get it back." —Carl Sagan

What each of these quotes is telling us, is that we're deceived by the world around us, into believing things that are false and contrary to the light of truth within us all.

* Thus, the opening quote of this document "Truth is simple; complexity is not", was derived from reinterpreting Dewey B. Larson's observation that "Complexity is entertaining; simplicity is not."

And if that's true, that complexity is entertaining "anti-truth," then wouldn't God be the "simple, boring truth"?

Wouldn't evil be in the form of a spectacle with exotic sounds and artificial colors, like a carnival of varieties?

A means to distract you from discovering this simple truth found within you, that you are a child of God, with divine light in your soul.

Whereas the way to discover God within yourself, would be to stop chasing your ego's fantasies in the exciting world of stimulating motion, and turn to seek God's peace within.

Ask yourself: "What am I here to learn in this lifetime?" "What is my purpose?" "Am I on the 'right' track to fulfill my mission?"

Then, "What am I doing with my life, and why?" "Am I fulfilling my goals, and if not, what are they?" "Am I being true to my Self?"

Or is this you? "It's all just a game played for nothing, and it doesn't mean anything at all!"

If you're struggling with issues, ask yourself: "Why am I experiencing these difficult circumstances and/or conditions?"

Perhaps, mental or physical problems: "What's causing these symptoms to manifest within me?"

Or extreme: "Why am I being punished?" "Why have I lost everything?" "Why does this keep happening to me?"

The truth is, no one has these answers but you, your higher Self, and God. Even if these are hidden from you.

And the "higher ones" (your higher consciousness, angels, spirits, and God) are trying to guide you to find them, to learn a lesson in this lifetime, hidden from revelation.

But only if you care to listen to them, by finding the courage to seek them, and open your mind to a new discovery, perhaps unimaginable until now:

You are the carrier and messenger of truth, of your own purpose and mission in living this life.

But to find it, means to open your mind and heart to God's truth, exposing your darkness to light.

By learning to hear the silence within, over the "voice" and doubt in your mind.

Let the light in your consciousness be the guide in your life.
