

“All IS Found”

By J

“What does that mean?”

Simply stated: balancing yourself, by returning to light (as evidenced by the visualization below):

ABOVE, ONE OF SEVERAL MEASURING CHARTS FROM ALL IS FOUNDATION'S LIGHT IN LIFE GUIDED SELF-HEALING TOOL, COMPARING THE RESULTS OF A PATIENT'S CHAKRA (LIGHT ENERGY MOTOR) BALANCE AS MEASURED IN 2011 (LEFT), AND BALANCED REFERENCE (RIGHT). THE IMBALANCE HERE REVEALED, CAN LEAD TO IDENTIFYING INDIVIDUAL CHARACTERISTICS WHICH ARE CAUSING ISSUES IN ONE'S LIFE.

After struggling for many years with depression, anxiety, substance abuse, anger and resentment, followed by what appeared to be catastrophic failures of judgment in both career and relationship, a decision was made to stop giving into darkness by praying to Jesus and asking for his guidance.

By the intention of turning this life around after almost 30 years of constant struggle living within, the seed was planted and the effort was made to extract this soul from the bottom of his own hell, and begin to stand up for the Self by giving up, one step at a time, the pursuit of satisfying cravings.

During these first two years, untangled himself from an impossible situation, leaving the familiar behind to embrace change and a new life in hope of finding the light, which eventually led him to Sedona, Arizona, where following his instincts by God's guidance, took his first steps in healing.

The realization followed, after spending time in the desert, that he needed to go home, and face his greatest fear. And over following three years of confrontation, discovery, and then exploration, achieved his first breakthrough, in discovering his own courage to pursue a spiritual path in light.

During this time, continuing to offer fallen temptations, the darkness never ceased to haunt him.

But perseverance along the path of giving into light, by forgiveness, acceptance, and willingness, slowly returned its rewards, in the form of knowledge, wisdom and materials of a spiritual nature, leading to the personal discovery of findings by others before him, sharing their gifts to be found.

By working through what these enlightened teachers had uncovered before him, and combining it with kinesiology (muscle-testing) procedure, was able to make use of spiritual condition research, with a practical means of measuring these in anyone willing or allowed to pursue this themselves.

After seven years of continuous progress, since making the commitment to following God's path, this work's research eventually began to bear fruit, in the first pages of the Light in Life template, and making the discovery of a key to life, as described in The Mystery of Larson's Cross paper.

The evidence revealed through Self-healing pursuit was validation of his effort to choose this path.

In learning to work with God, through intuition and following his guidance, rather than rejecting all he stood for as previously perceived, this being has learned the value of spiritual fulfillment by the commitment to his higher Self, and thus transformed his life from unconsciousness to awakening.

As a consequence, problematic psychological and emotional issues were identified and relieved, most allergy reactions which had been progressively getting worse have vanished entirely, and is now fully realigned to the true being, original higher Self, living with deep happiness and knowing.

The progress made is a complete 180° reversal from almost a decade prior, from digging a grave, to now walking in the freedom of spiritual truth, alive with the presence of light at all times within.

Of awakening consciousness in humanity by individuals releasing their shadow in return for light.

In becoming ONE with God's light within your Self: All IS Found.
